

Wraparound and Holiday Childcare

From September 2016 all parents of children in Reception up to Year 9 have the right to request wraparound and/or holiday childcare in the school their child attends.

Wraparound care includes early morning “breakfast club” provision, for example, as well as after-school childcare which extends beyond the end of the school day during term time and is also available in the school holidays.

The following “rights to request” timeline 2016/2017 shows the timetable and process for the consideration of requests by the Governing Body.

Informing Parents of their Right to Request Wraparound and/or Holiday Childcare
January 2017	Parents informed via Website
Annual Request Window
3 rd January 2017 – 31 March 2017	Requests must be received within this time
Consideration of Request Applications
1 st April – 30 May 2017	Schools consider care options
Governors Decision/Response to parents who have requested Wraparound and/or Holiday Childcare
31 May 2017	Deadline for Schools response to Parents
Establishing Wraparound and/or Holiday Childcare Provision
31 May – 31 August 2017	Set up wraparound and holiday care
Provision Delivery
1 September 2017	Wraparound and holiday care in place

Parents are requested to submit the form below on paper or via email by the request window deadline of 31 March 2017 to Mrs Jane Kearns, Bursar/Secretary, detailing the name and age of the child concerned, the type of childcare requested and an indication of when the provision is needed.

Parental Request Form – Wraparound and/or Holiday Childcare

Please return to Mrs Jane Kearns Bursar/Secretary no later than 31 March 2017. Parents/Carers with more than one child requiring childcare will need to complete an individual form for each child concerned.
